PUERTO BANÚS

A study in contemporary Mediterranean living

MARBELLA · SPAIN

Coastal light, rich materiality and considered furniture composition.

PORTFOLIO CASE STUDY

Collaborative interior design contribution within the NOVA KASYANOV project team.

ART OF MEANING

Contemporary living, with a Mediterranean soul.

A residential interior in Puerto Banús, Marbella, shaped by a warm material palette, expressive furniture and an ever-present connection to the sea. The project brings together soft textiles, sculptural forms, walnut finishes and richly veined dark stone for a composed, contemporary atmosphere.

Living with the horizon

Coastal continuity
Sea views bring a calming visual anchor to the residence. Cool blue accents connect the terrace to the softer interior palette.

Editorial focus: lead with the terrace image to establish location, atmosphere and the residence's relationship with the Mediterranean.

Softness in the details

The bedroom combines carefully layered fabrics, restrained lighting and warm neutral finishes. The selection of furnishings and textiles helps create a calm, tactile environment without losing its contemporary character.

CONTRIBUTION HIGHLIGHT

Master bedroom furniture selection and fabric selection as part of the wider design team.

An expressive yet balanced interior

Furniture & spatial rhythm
Curved seating, occasional tables and a bold artwork create contrast within a restrained, warm setting.

Portfolio emphasis: spatial organisation and furniture composition. Do not attribute the artwork to Art of Meaning unless independently confirmed.

Material contrasts

Warm walnut surfaces and sharply veined dark stone meet quieter, light-toned cabinetry. These material relationships give the space depth while preserving visual clarity.

PROJECT DETAILS

Location: Puerto Banús, Marbella, Spain
Project: Luxury residential interior
Design team: NOVA KASYANOV
My contribution: Floor plan development, furniture layouts, master bedroom furniture selection and fabric selection.

DESCRIPTION

Set along the Mediterranean coast in Puerto Banús, this residential project balances contemporary elegance with the relaxed atmosphere of coastal living. Natural textures, layered textiles and a carefully considered selection of furniture create an interior that feels composed yet inviting.

Working as part of the NOVA KASYANOV design team, I contributed to floor plan development and furniture layouts, supporting the relationship between circulation, comfort and visual harmony. My involvement also included selecting furniture and fabrics for the master bedroom, with an emphasis on material balance and a cohesive, understated atmosphere.

The wider project brings together rich walnut finishes, expressive dark stone, soft upholstery and selected contemporary design pieces. The resulting visual language is refined and tactile, while the coastal setting remains a defining part of the experience.

Puerto Banús Residence

Współczesna elegancja nad Morzem Śródziemnym

INFORMACJE O PROJEKCIE

Lokalizacja: Puerto Banús, Marbella, Hiszpania
Typ: Wnętrze rezydencjalne premium
Zespół projektowy: NOVA KASYANOV
Mój udział: Opracowanie rzutów, układów meblowych oraz dobór mebli i tkanin do sypialni głównej.

OPIS PROJEKTU

Projekt wnętrza rezydencjalnego w Puerto Banús łączy współczesną elegancję ze swobodą śródziemnomorskiego stylu życia. Naturalne faktury, warstwowo zestawione tkaniny i starannie dobrane formy mebli budują spokojną, a jednocześnie wyrazistą atmosferę.

W ramach współpracy z zespołem NOVA KASYANOV odpowiadałam za rozwijanie rzutów i układów funkcjonalnych mebli, z uwzględnieniem komunikacji, komfortu użytkowania i spójności kompozycyjnej. Mój zakres obejmował również dobór wyposażenia oraz tkanin do głównej sypialni.

Charakter wnętrza tworzą m.in. ciepłe drewno orzechowe, kamień o wyrazistym rysunku, miękkie tapicerki i dopracowane detale. Całość pozostaje w bliskim dialogu z otaczającym krajobrazem i widokiem na morze.
